STAGE VAUDEVILLE AS THEY WAIT TO FIGHT

U. S. Soldiers Sing With Gas Masks

on as Comrades Battle Hun at Argonne.

BY JUNIUS B. WOOD.

Cablegram to The Sunday Star and the New York Tribune, Copyright, 1918.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY AT THE FRONT, October 4.—Vaudeville in the Argonne forest to enliven the hours of those not in the immediate fighting line. One evening recently the boys who expect to sing and dance themselves into Berlin just could not resist the temptation to give a performance. Though the masks muffled the sound of the cabaret selections the audience was satisfied.

The Germans at the same time were making a vigorous counter attack to drive the Americans out of the forest. The fighting lasted through the night, an entire German brigade of fresh reserves taking part. Capt. Walter W. Metcalf, Capt. Henry T. Eaton and Capt. Duncan C. Harris led the units holding the temporary line which repelled the German assault on this portion of the front. William L. Siebert, son of Gen. William L. Siebert, leading a patrol of four men seeking out gas pockers ran into a German patrol the night. They captured seven and killed four, while five escaped.

New units are taking part in the offensive advancing objectives at the western edge of the Argonne forest. The capture of Mont Faucon gives the American center the highest observation post within many miles. The German artillery concentration on Verdun was directed from this point until recently. The crest of the hill is 342 meters (1,122 feet) above the level, while Mont Thormé is only 304 meters (997 feet). From the crest, they are able to see Buzancy, twenty-five kilometers (fifteen miles) to the north, the center of the German military road constructed to feed the western front.

AMONG THE CLUBS

Colonial Daughters of America.—The second year of this society was inaugurated Tuesday evening at the residence of Mrs. Arturo V. Casanova, with the following members present: Mrs. Sylvanus Johnson, regent, and Mrs. Beach, Mrs. Berryman, Miss Blinn, Mrs. Brumbaugh, Mrs. Casanova, Mrs. Fernald, Mrs. Longfellow, Mrs. Menzies, Mrs. Morris, Mrs. Oursler, and Mrs. St. Clair, and the Misses Hardesty and Miss Elliott as guests. After the opening ceremony, reading of the minutes and monthly reports, the following new members were unanimously elected by ballot: Mrs. George E. Pierce of the front, Mrs. Lawrence Cleveland and Miss Elma Caroline Bishop of Berkeley, Pa.; Mrs. Harrison of New Haven, Conn.; Mrs. H. Klen of Jersey City, N. J.; Mrs. Jersey shore, and Mrs. Ella Hoover Thatcher and Mrs. L. E. White of Washington.

The chairman of the printing committee reported that the new yearbook will be ready for distribution at the next meeting and will contain a tribute to Mrs. Ruth M. Griswold Pealer, one of the society's most valued members, who died shortly after the close of the last season.

The first undertaking by the society in the nature of war relief was the adoption of a French orphan through Mme. Jusseland, as unanimously voted at the meeting. Mrs. L. E. White, who was ill, and therefore unable to read the colonial paper prepared by her for the occasion, but which refreshments were served by the hostesses, while Miss Hardesty entertained with her sister.

Mary Washington Chapter, D. A. R.—will meet for the first time this season Tuesday evening at the Washington Club. Mrs. Charles W. Richardson, the newly elected regent, will preside, and the meeting will be devoted to planning a program of service work in connection with the national society. Miss Janet Richards, former regent of the chapter, is still lingering on the Maine coast. Writing to friends recently, Miss Richards spoke of the real relief work which has been done at York Harbor, where she spends her summers. The home of Mrs. Thomas Nelson Page, which has been opened by her daughter, Mrs. Lindsay, for Italian relief work, hums daily with sewing machines. Miss Richards was recently the recipient of honor at a reception given by the York Chapter at York Harbor, and before her return to the mainland she gave a series of lectures for the benefit of the chapter's Red Cross work.

Florence Crittenton Wheel Club.—Mrs. Mary W. Foster, 625 A street southeast, president, gave a luncheon at the club for the members Thursday, marking the beginning of the club's thirty-third year of service. The roll call was followed by the decorations on the place cards. "Animals I have known."

A fourth of the club was absent because of sickness in families. Guests were Mrs. G. W. Rodgers, Mrs. Edith Hamilton and Mrs. E. L. Hammett. The hostess on October 17 will be Mrs. Brashers, 1320 Gallatin street.

Owing to the epidemic many club organizations have canceled meetings scheduled for the coming week.

The District Federation of Women's Clubs.—Mrs. Court F. Wood, president, is co-operating with the Red Cross in making influenza masks to aid in staying the epidemic which now threatens to interrupt the war work in Washington and vicinity. Members of the Federation Chapter of the District Red Cross Society will meet daily from now until further notice at headquarters, 1230 Connecticut avenue, to make masks and volunteers will be welcomed. A light luncheon is served so as to conserve the strength of the workers, with as little interruption as possible.

Progress in the Liberty loan campaign in each of the thirty-nine incorporated clubs is discussed around the sewing circle; also plans for the winter program of federation work. This program, identical with that of the general federation, will include mobilizing, as needed service. It includes also renewed activity in all Americanization work.

The Woman's Division of the United States Employment Service. located at 1410 Pennsylvania avenue, placed nearly two thousand women in war work during September, and is now appealing to the resistance-trained women are especially desired. To meet the demand for trained workers in the war work, the division is in the process of organizing in the most needed occupations. The latest opportunity of this kind is the opening of a week of a telephone class, in which those already familiar with the use of a typewriter may, by learning to operate a dictaphone, help to relieve the congestion of correspondence caused by the death of expert stenographers. Adding machine, punching machine and comptometer operators are in almost the same demand by private firms as by the government.

A special section for store help was started in the woman's division also this week for the purpose of aiding the merchants of the city in securing much needed assistants in every department of salesmanship. This division is a real war measure and promises to be far-reaching in its purpose to promote the interests of employers and employees.

The Anthony League held its first meeting of the season Thursday at headquarters, 1407 Columbia road. Hilton Jackson gave a talk on the Liberty loan. The league subscribed for a bond. Dr. Laura Brennan and Mrs. Widney each presented the league with a bond. A synopsis was given of the amount of work accomplished at Atlantic City this summer by Mrs. Anna Hendley and Mrs. E. E. King. Mrs. Kondrup gave a partial report of the summer work. Thirty-seven finished garments returned to September 1. A full report will be given later. Mrs. Snyder, chairman of the Red Cross unit, has secured the services of two members of the league for each Thursday, to meet at 1830 Connecticut avenue for sewing.

The Columbia Iron works at Chattanooga were damaged by fire Monday. The fire was checked after the shell shop was practically destroyed and before the flames reached the machine shops proper or the boiler.

FILMS FOR HUN TROOPS.

15 in the Marna country, the pictures showing certain stretches of land, as to familiarize the advance troops with the terrain. Some of the wooded districts and fields shown on the film were never reached by the Germans owing to the counter attack of the French and Americans, which began on the morning of July 18, completely upsetting the German plans.

Information reached the American officers recently that moving pictures had been put on the screen for the benefit of the Germans who took part in the offensive, which started July 18.

The Liberty Loan Needs Everybody's Cooperation

It's more of a duty than merely buying one Bond—for the sake of saying you have contributed to the Loan. Let's not any of us stop at that—but go the limit of our ability. We must expect to make sacrifices. Our soldiers are making them—greater ones than can be matched by any amount of money invested in Liberty Bonds.

"Buy until it hurts" is a good motto to follow. It may "hurt" your pocketbook—but it surely will do your patriotism good—and make you feel that you have really done something to help win the war.

The promptness with which the Liberty Loan is subscribed over here—tells the boys over there just how real and true and sincere our support of them is. Let's not go back on them.

You are asked by the Liberty Loan Committee to remain at home after 1 o'clock today until you are waited upon by a "volunteer." Because of the epidemic, other means of solicitation have been abandoned to a thorough house-to-house canvass today. Don't let them knock on your door in vain. If you have already bought—buy another—when the solicitor calls.
